

TCSI mapping tables

You need to use the 2020 data element specifications to report all Course admissions with a Course of study commencement date in 2020.

Data should be recording using the new allowable values. However, you can use the mapping tables below if the student was admitted before you implemented the new allowable values.

We have tables for:

- Basis for admission code (E327)
- Disability code (E615) replaces Disability (E386)
